

Press release

Race-Boots.com sponsors BRDC award.

London. 8th December 2008

Race-Boots.com sponsors the Spencer Charrington Trophy presented at the British Racing Drivers' Club Annual Awards 2008. Staged at the Café Royal, in central London. the BRDC Annual Awards is a celebration of the successes achieved by British and Commonwealth drivers during the year. In front of a gathering, which included Prime Minister, Gordon Brown, F1 World Champion, Lewis Hamilton and Le Mans 24 Hr winner, Allan McNish the Spencer Charrington Trophy, was awarded to Oliver Turvey.

The Spencer Charrington Trophy is awarded to the highest placed British Driver in the British Formula Three Championship. This year Oliver Turvey was runner up in the Championship. Presenting the award to Oliver was Scottish driver, Marino Franchitti and Chris Nurse from Race-Boots.com.

Commenting after the presentation Chris Nurse from Race-Boots.com said "We are delighted to support the Spencer Charrington Trophy which recognises the success of the leading British driver in the British Formula Three Championship.

End.

Editors:

Race-Boots.com is the trading business of Fyshe Limited ("Fyshe") adidas' exclusive motorsport partner. Based in London, Fyshe is responsible for sports marketing and distribution of adidas equipment through a global network of specialist motorsport equipment retailers. Building on adidas' heritage and reputation in motorsport footwear, Fyshe is currently developing the next generation of driver safety equipment and team wear in partnership with some of the world's leading drivers and motorsport teams.

Website: www.Race-Boots.com

For further information please contact Fyshe Limited on 0207 585 1430 or info@fyshe.com